NOTICE REGARDING NEW SUB-ADVISER

Blackstone Alternative Investment Advisors LLC (“BAIA”), the investment adviser to Blackstone Alternative Multi-Strategy Fund (the “Fund”), a series of Blackstone Alternative Investment Funds (the “Trust”), seeks to achieve the Fund’s objective principally by allocating the Fund’s assets among a variety of non-traditional or alternative investment strategies. BAIA allocates the Fund’s assets among sub-advisers with experience managing non-traditional or alternative investment strategies. This Information Statement is being provided to the Fund’s shareholders in lieu of a proxy statement, pursuant to the terms of an exemptive order received from the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 13, 2017. This exemptive order permits BAIA to enter into and amend materially sub-advisory agreements with discretionary and non-discretionary investment sub-advisers that are either unaffiliated with BAIA or that are directly or indirectly wholly-owned subsidiaries of Blackstone Inc. (“Blackstone”) without seeking the approval of the Fund’s shareholders, so long as certain conditions are satisfied. This Information Statement is to inform you that, at BAIA’s recommendation, the Trust’s Board of Trustees (the “Board”) recently has approved Callodine Capital Management, LP (“Callodine”) as a discretionary sub-adviser to the Fund. No shareholder approval is required.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

THE FUND AND THE ADVISORY AGREEMENT

BAIA serves as the investment adviser to the Fund pursuant to an Investment Advisory Agreement dated March 17, 2014, as amended (the “Advisory Agreement”). BAIA seeks to achieve the Fund’s objective principally by allocating the Fund’s assets among a variety of non-traditional or alternative investment strategies, including, in part, by allocating the Fund’s assets among sub-advisers with experience managing non-traditional or alternative investment strategies. BAIA also allocates the Fund’s assets among certain unaffiliated investment funds, manages a portion of the Fund’s assets directly, and, from time to time, may instruct sub-advisers with respect to particular investments. BAIA is responsible for selecting the Fund’s investment strategies, for identifying and retaining sub-advisers with expertise in the selected strategies, and for determining the amount of Fund assets to allocate to each sub-adviser or to manage directly.

BAIA will adjust allocations from time to time among strategies or sub-advisers based on its assessment of sub-adviser performance, market conditions and opportunities, and BAIA has discretion to not allocate any assets to one or more sub-advisers at any time. BAIA currently intends to generally consider the following factors as part of its sub-adviser screening process, although the factors considered from time to time or with respect to any one sub-adviser may vary and may include only some or none of the factors listed below or other factors that are not listed below:

- Attractive long-term risk-adjusted investment performance: BAIA seeks to choose sub-advisers focused on alternative strategies that it believes will produce attractive long-term risk-adjusted returns over a full market cycle.
- Skilled application of non-traditional/alternative investment techniques: BAIA believes that attractive risk-adjusted investment returns can sometimes be found outside traditional investment strategies that rely on relative performance against public market equity and fixed income benchmarks. BAIA seeks to choose sub-advisers who use “non-traditional” investment approaches, which often seek to take advantage of market inefficiencies and other factors in order to outperform the underlying markets of their investments.
- Opportunistic approach to investing: Among the sub-advisers sought by BAIA, BAIA may choose “opportunistic” sub-advisers who are willing to make substantial investments based on the direction the sub-adviser anticipates a particular market, markets, or individual securities will take. These sub-advisers may make “directional investments” and frequently use leverage to attempt to produce attractive returns. It is possible that BAIA may make only relatively short-term allocations to sub-advisers that specialize in opportunistic trades.

- Management stability and committed investment professionals: BAIA believes the ability to generate attractive risk-adjusted returns over a full market cycle, especially when the application of sophisticated non-traditional techniques is involved, is dependent upon the performance of committed investment professionals. No matter how appealing the investment concept, BAIA believes that attractive risk-adjusted returns can only be generated by committed people operating in a stable environment.
- Ongoing monitoring: Once selected, the performance of each sub-adviser is regularly reviewed, and new sub-advisers are identified and considered on an on-going basis. In addition, the allocation of the Fund’s assets among sub-advisers, approaches, and styles will be regularly monitored and may be adjusted in response to performance results or changing economic conditions. BAIA reviews a number of quantitative and qualitative factors in connection with the allocation of the Fund’s assets, including, without limitation, macroeconomic scenarios, market sentiment, diversification, strategy capacity, regulatory constraints, and the fees associated with the strategy.

Each sub-adviser selected by BAIA and approved by the Board enters into a sub-advisory agreement with BAIA, pursuant to which each discretionary sub-adviser is delegated responsibility for the day-to-day management of the assets of the Fund and/or of one or more of the wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Fund allocates to the sub-adviser (the “Allocated Portion”). BAIA compensates the sub-advisers out of the management fee it receives from the Fund or one or more of the Fund’s three wholly-owned subsidiaries. Each discretionary sub-adviser makes investment decisions for the assets it has been allocated to manage, subject to the overall supervision of BAIA. BAIA has the responsibility to oversee each sub-adviser, subject to the ultimate oversight of the Board. BAIA oversees each sub-adviser for compliance with the Fund’s investment objective, policies, strategies, and restrictions, and monitors each sub-adviser’s adherence to its investment style.

THE NEW SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENT

At a meeting of the Board held on May 21-22, 2025, the Board, including a majority of the Board members who are not interested persons of the Fund within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“1940 Act”) (the “Independent Trustees”), approved Callodine as a new sub-adviser to the Fund and, in connection therewith, also approved a sub-advisory agreement between BAIA and Callodine. The new sub-advisory agreement with Callodine became effective as of June 2, 2025.

Under its sub-advisory agreement, subject to the supervision and oversight of BAIA, Callodine will furnish continuously an investment program for the Fund, determining what investments to purchase, hold, sell, or exchange and what portion of the Fund’s assets to hold uninvested, with respect to its Allocated Portion, in compliance with the Fund’s governing documents, registration statement, investment objective, policies, and restrictions, and applicable law and subject to the oversight of the Board. Callodine is responsible for its expenses incurred in connection with managing its Allocated Portion. Callodine receives, as compensation for its services, fees from BAIA (not the Fund).

The initial term of the new sub-advisory agreement with Callodine extends until June 2, 2027. After the initial term, the sub-advisory agreement shall continue in effect for successive periods of no more than twelve (12) months each, only so long as such continuance is specifically approved at least annually (i) by the Board or by vote of a majority of outstanding voting securities of the Fund and (ii) by a majority of the Independent Trustees.

The sub-advisory agreement with Callodine may be terminated without payment of any penalty, (i) by the Board, or by a vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund, upon 60 days’ prior written notice to BAIA and Callodine; (ii) by Callodine upon 60 days’ prior written notice to BAIA and the Fund; (iii) by BAIA upon 61 days’ written notice to Callodine; (iv) by BAIA immediately upon (a) a material breach by Callodine of the sub-advisory agreement which is not promptly cured pursuant to the terms of the sub-advisory agreement; (b) the Callodine Keyman (as defined in the sub-advisory agreement) dies, becomes Disabled (as defined in the sub-advisory agreement), otherwise ceases to spend substantially all of his business time on the affairs of Callodine Group, LLC and its affiliates or no longer oversees Callodine's management of the Allocated Portion; or (c) if Callodine or the Callodine Keyman is convicted in any regulatory, self-regulatory or judicial proceeding of violating the federal securities laws or engaging in criminal conduct; or (v) by Callodine immediately upon (a) a material breach by BAIA of the sub-advisory agreement which is not promptly cured pursuant to the terms of the sub-advisory agreement; or (b) if BAIA or any officer or director of BAIA is accused in any regulatory, self-regulatory or judicial proceeding of violating the federal securities laws or engaging in criminal conduct. The sub-advisory agreement with Callodine will terminate automatically and immediately in the event of its assignment or the termination of the Advisory Agreement.

The sub-advisory agreement may also terminate if mutually agreed upon by both BAIA and Callodine. Under the exemptive order referenced above, so long as certain conditions are satisfied, the sub-advisory agreement may be amended materially without shareholder approval. However, the exemptive order requires generally that shareholders of the Fund receive notice within 90 days of the hiring of a new sub-adviser and that the Fund provide shareholders with information that is similar to that which would have been included in a proxy statement to shareholders.

The Fund's existing sub-advisers' sub-advisory agreements, and the services provided pursuant to such agreements, are unchanged as a result of the Board's approval of Callodine.

The form of the sub-advisory agreement is attached at Exhibit A.

BOARD CONSIDERATIONS

At its meeting on May 21-22, 2025, the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, approved the new sub-advisory agreement with Callodine. At the meeting, the Board had discussions with BAIA and reviewed and considered various written materials and oral presentations in connection with Callodine's proposed services, including with respect to the nature, extent, and quality of services, profitability, fees and expenses, investment performance, code of ethics, and compliance program. Additionally, the Board considered the process undertaken during its consideration and approval of the Advisory Agreement between BAIA and the Trust, on behalf of the Fund, and the sub-advisory agreements between BAIA and each of the existing sub-advisers. The Independent Trustees conferred with the Independent Trustees' independent legal counsel to consider the information provided. Following an analysis and discussion of the factors identified below, the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, approved the sub-advisory agreement with Callodine.

Nature, Extent, and Quality of Services

The Board discussed and considered: (i) Callodine's personnel, operations, and financial condition; (ii) Callodine's strengths, including its expertise in dividend-paying stocks and specialty income sectors; (iii) the percentage of assets expected to be allocated to Callodine; (iv) Callodine's experience and performance as a hedge fund manager, and the extent to which Callodine's proposed strategy for the Fund is expected to overlap with its hedge fund strategy; and (v) the experience and depth of Callodine's portfolio management team managing hedge funds and other products and its ability to manage risk. The Board concluded that the nature, extent, and quality of the sub-advisory services proposed to be provided were appropriate and thus supported a decision to approve the Callodine sub-advisory agreement.

Investment Performance

It was noted that, because Callodine is a newly proposed sub-adviser, there is no prior performance to consider with respect to the Fund.

Costs of Services and Profitability

In analyzing the cost of services and profitability of Callodine, the Board considered (i) Callodine's proposed sub-advisory fee for managing the allocated Fund assets; (ii) the fact that the proposed sub-advisory fee rate for Callodine did not include breakpoints based on the level of allocated assets of the Fund; (iii) Callodine's resources expected to be devoted to the Fund; and (iv) any information provided in response to inquiries regarding the expected profitability to Callodine from providing sub-advisory services to the Fund. The Board considered the specific resources that Callodine expected to devote to the Fund for investment analysis, risk management, compliance, and order execution, and the extent to which Callodine investment process would be scalable. The Board also took into account the entrepreneurial, business, and other risks Callodine has undertaken in agreeing to serve as an investment sub-adviser to the Fund.

The Board noted that the compensation to be paid to Callodine would be paid by BAIA, not the Fund, and, accordingly, that the retention of Callodine would not increase the fees or expenses otherwise incurred by shareholders of the Fund. It also noted that the terms of Callodine's sub-advisory agreement were the result of separate arm's-length negotiations between BAIA and Callodine. The Board also considered information regarding the impact that retaining Callodine as a sub-adviser to the Fund would have on BAIA's profitability, as well as information about the blended average of all sub-advisory fee rates that BAIA pays the sub-advisers based on allocations of Fund assets among all the sub-advisers. The Board concluded that the level of investment sub-advisory fees was appropriate in light of the services to be provided.

Economies of Scale

The Board considered various financial and economic considerations relating to the arrangement with Callodine, including economies of scale. The Board noted challenges in identifying and measuring economies of scale, both generally and given the Fund's multi-manager structure and the different sub-adviser fee levels and fee structures. The Board noted that breakpoints in the sub-advisory fee were not proposed for Callodine. The Board further noted that it would have the opportunity to periodically re-examine whether the Fund had achieved economies of scale, as well as the appropriateness of sub-advisory fees payable to Callodine, with respect to different asset sizes of the portfolio, in the future. The Board also noted that, although not directly related to the sub-advisory fees payable to Callodine, certain fund expenses were subject to an expense cap, an undertaking by BAIA intended to limit the Fund's overall expenses at smaller asset levels, and that the absence of breakpoints in the sub-advisory agreement would not directly impact the Fund because BAIA pays Callodine out of the fee it receives from the Fund (which does not contain breakpoints).

Other Benefits

The Board considered other potential benefits that Callodine may receive from serving as a sub-adviser to the Fund, including soft dollar arrangements, receipt of brokerage and research services, and the opportunity to offer additional products and services to Fund shareholders or to BAIA. The Board noted that Callodine would benefit from its proposed relationship with BAIA. The Board concluded that other ancillary or “fall out” benefits derived by Callodine from its proposed relationship with BAIA or the Fund, to the extent such benefits were identifiable or determinable, were reasonable and fair, resulted from the provision of appropriate services to the Fund and its shareholders, and were consistent with industry practice and the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

Other Considerations

The Board reviewed and considered certain terms and conditions of Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement. After discussion, the Board concluded that the terms of Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement were reasonable and fair. It was noted that the Board would have the opportunity to periodically re-examine the terms of Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement in the future.

Conclusion

The Board, including all of the Independent Trustees, concluded that the fees payable under Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement were fair and reasonable with respect to the services that Callodine would provide to the Fund and in light of the other factors described above that the Board deemed relevant. The Board noted that both BAIA and the Board had determined that Callodine’s compliance program was reasonably designed to prevent the violation of the Federal Securities Laws within the meaning of Rule 38a-1 under the 1940 Act, and that Callodine’s code of ethics was reasonably designed to prevent “access persons” (as defined in Rule 17j-1 under the 1940 Act) from engaging in any act, practice, or course of business prohibited by Rule 17j-1(b) under the 1940 Act. The Board noted that the compliance policies and procedures and code of ethics for Callodine had been considered for approval in the meeting on May 21-22, 2025. The Board based its approval of Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement on a comprehensive consideration of all relevant information presented to the Board at the meeting on May 21-22, 2025, and not as a result of any single controlling factor. The Board also gave due consideration to the recommendations of BAIA to approve the proposed sub-advisory arrangement as in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders, and BAIA’s belief that the arrangement does not present any conflict of interest from which BAIA or any sub-adviser derives an inappropriate advantage. The Independent Trustees were assisted by the advice of independent legal counsel in approving Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement. Before acting on the various findings described in this paragraph, it was noted that resolutions relating to Callodine’s sub-advisory agreement would not be considered until after an executive session of the Independent Trustees scheduled for later in the meeting.

INVESTMENT SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENT

This investment sub-advisory agreement (the “Agreement”) is effective as of June 2, 2025, between Blackstone Alternative Investment Advisors LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Adviser”), and Callodine Capital Management, LP, a Delaware limited partnership (the “Sub-Adviser”).

WHEREAS, the Adviser has entered into an Investment Advisory Agreement (the “Advisory Agreement”) with Blackstone Alternative Investment Funds, a Massachusetts business trust (the “Trust”), on behalf of its series, Blackstone Alternative Multi-Strategy Fund (the “Fund”), relating to the provision of portfolio management services to the Fund; and

WHEREAS, the Trust is registered as an open-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”); and

WHEREAS, the Advisory Agreement provides that the Adviser may delegate any or all of its portfolio management responsibilities under the Advisory Agreement to one or more sub-investment advisers; and

WHEREAS, in selecting sub-investment advisers and entering into and amending sub-advisory agreements, the Adviser and the Trust may rely upon an exemptive order obtained from the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), provided that the Adviser and the Trust comply with the terms and conditions set forth therein; and

WHEREAS, the Adviser and the Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of the Trust desire to retain the Sub-Adviser to render portfolio management services to the Fund in the manner and on the terms set forth in this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser agree as follows:

1. Appointment.

- a. Role of Sub-Adviser. The Adviser hereby appoints the Sub-Adviser to act as an investment adviser for the Fund, subject to the oversight and direction of the Adviser and the Board, for so long as this Agreement remains in effect. Without limiting the generality of the previous statement, the Sub-Adviser shall manage the investment and reinvestment of the assets of the Fund allocated to it in accordance with such investment strategies and within such limitations as the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser shall agree from time to time (collectively the “Strategy”). The Sub-Adviser acknowledges and agrees that the various investment advisory and other services as set forth herein to be performed by the Sub-Adviser will apply to the portion of the Fund’s assets that the Adviser or the Board shall from time to time designate, which may consist of all or a portion of the Fund’s assets (the “Allocated Portion”). The Sub-Adviser may provide the various investment advisory and other services with respect to the Allocated Portion to the Fund and/or a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund: Blackstone Alternative Multi-Strategy Sub Fund II Ltd., Blackstone Alternative Multi-Strategy Sub Fund III LLC, and/or Blackstone Alternative Multi-Strategy Sub Fund IV LLC. The Allocated Portion may take the form of synthetic exposure to the Strategy obtained through the use of one or more total return swaps (a “Basket Swap”) through which the Fund, or a wholly-owned subsidiary thereof, makes payments to a counterparty in exchange for receiving from the counterparty payments that reflect the return of a “basket” of securities, derivatives, and/or commodity interests representing the Strategy, or a component thereof. Where the Allocation Portion takes the form of a Basket Swap(s), the defined term “Allocated Portion” shall, where necessary or appropriate to give the same effect to the provision as if the Strategy were otherwise implemented, refer to not only the securities or other instruments comprising or held in any basket or account that serves as the reference, hedging account or collateral for any such Basket Swap. The Sub-Adviser hereby accepts such appointment and agrees during such period, subject to the oversight of the Board and the Adviser, to render the services and to assume the obligations herein set forth for the compensation stated in Section 5 hereof. The Sub-Adviser shall for all purposes herein be deemed to be an independent contractor and shall, except as expressly provided or authorized (whether herein or otherwise), have no authority or obligation to act for or represent the Adviser, the Trust, or the Fund in any way.

- b. Limitations of Sub-Adviser's Responsibility. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Sub-Adviser shall not be responsible for aspects of the Fund's investment program other than the management of the Allocated Portion in accordance with the Strategy.
- c. Sub-Advisory Arrangement Not Exclusive for Fund and Sub-Adviser. It is acknowledged and agreed that the Adviser may appoint from time to time other sub-advisers in addition to the Sub-Adviser to manage the assets of the Fund that do not constitute the Allocated Portion and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed or interpreted to grant the Sub-Adviser an exclusive arrangement to act as the sole sub-adviser to the Fund. It is further acknowledged and agreed that the Adviser makes no commitment to designate any portion of the Fund's assets to the Sub-Adviser as the Allocated Portion. The Adviser also recognizes that the Sub-Adviser may be or become associated with other investment entities and engage in investment management for others. Except to the extent necessary to perform its obligations hereunder, nothing herein shall be deemed to require the Sub-Adviser to devote any minimum amount of time or attention to the management of the Allocated Portion. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or restrict the right of the Sub-Adviser to engage in, or to devote time and attention to the management of any other business, whether of a similar or dissimilar nature, or to render services of any kind to any other corporation, firm, individual or association. The Sub-Adviser may on occasion give advice or take action with respect to other investment entities that it manages that differs from the advice given with respect to the Allocated Portion.

2. Sub-Adviser Duties.

The Sub-Adviser is hereby granted (subject to the limitations expressed) the following authority and undertakes to provide the following services and to assume the following obligations:

- a. Supervision; Adviser Retains Certain Authority. In furnishing the services hereunder, the Sub-Adviser will be subject to the supervision of the Adviser and the Board. Subject to notice to the Sub-Adviser, the Adviser retains complete authority, to the extent permitted under the Advisory Agreement, to immediately assume direct responsibility for any function delegated to the Sub-Adviser under this Agreement.
- b. Continuous Investment Program. No Indemnifying Party shall be liable under this section for any settlement of any Proceeding entered into without its consent with respect to which indemnity may be sought hereunder, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

- f. The rights of indemnification provided in this section shall not be exclusive of or affect any other rights to which any person may be entitled by contract or otherwise by law, including, without limitation, the right to bring a claim not otherwise excluded under Section 9(a) hereto.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Section 12(j) shall be understood as a representation by the Sub-Adviser that it is the owner (or beneficial owner) of these securities for purposes other than those referenced herein.

- k. Ongoing Representations and Warranties. If, at any time during the term of this Agreement, it discovers any fact or omission, or any event or change of circumstances has occurred, which would make any of its representations and warranties in this Agreement inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect, the Sub-Adviser will provide prompt written notification to the Adviser of such fact, omission, event, or change of circumstance, and the facts related thereto. The Sub-Adviser agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Adviser in the event that: (i) the Sub-Adviser makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or is otherwise adjudged bankrupt or insolvent by a court of competent jurisdiction; or (ii) a material event occurs with respect to the Sub-Adviser’s investment advisory business that could reasonably be expected to adversely impact the Sub-Adviser’s ability to perform its duties under this Agreement.
